

5th Magdeburg Fire and Explosion Days: Invitation

Ladies and Gentlemen,

Dear colleagues,

We would like to invite you to the fifth Magdeburg Fire and Explosion Days to be held on March 23–24, 2017 at the Otto–von–Guericke–University, Magdeburg.

We offer you on two days a wide range of lectures on safety, fire and explosion. For details, please refer to the conference program. As an innovation this year one of the three parallel sessions has been designed throughout with English lectures.

Full Registration fee: 300 €

Reduced rate for speakers: 150 €

Registration fee for members of the SGA Association*: 250 €

Registration fee for SGA students: 50 €

Registration fee for students in the SGA Association*: 30 €

Accompanying person dinner ticket: 50 €

Registration includes attendance at all technical sessions, conference proceedings, all program material, lunches, refreshments and the conference dinner. Separate conference dinner tickets for accompanying person need to be ordered and purchased in advance.

We have organized an informal dinner for Thursday evening at the famous FestungMark. Once part of the largest Prussian fortress, the former canon walkways and casemate vaults are now a diverse cultural and conference center near the river Elbe and right in the heart of the Magdeburg city center (FestungMark).

Please use the registration form to register for the conference.

Die 5th Magdeburg Fire and Explosion Days are organized by the two institutions involved in the Safety and Hazard Defence study program.
